

- 1p 29 'I could feel my hanged clothes brushing against my face.' (part 2)
What is the function of this sentence?
A to highlight the fact that the narrator is not really in an office
B to indicate that the narrator has been given company clothes
C to make clear that the narrator should tidy his place of work
D to stress that the narrator has lost his way in the new company
- 1p 30 What does the narrator tell about freelancing in part 3 of the text?
A It helped him get potential employers interested in him.
B It made him vulnerable to bad eating and lifestyle habits.
C It meant he could take time off whenever he wanted.
D It provided him with an uncertain and irregular income.
- 1p 31 "“Wild,” I said with childlike wonder.’ (tekstdeel 4, laatste zin)
In welke zin reageert de verteller voor het eerst verbaasd over wat het virtuele kantoor te bieden heeft?
Citeer (= schrijf over uit de tekst) de eerste twee woorden van deze zin.

Tekst 8 Short Sleepers

- 1p 32 How can the tone of paragraph 1 be characterised best?
as both informative and
A critical
B formal
C outspoken
D playful
- 1p 33 Which of the following fits the gap in paragraph 1?
A which doesn't sound all that remarkable at first
B which is more than they need for their survival
C which leaves them plenty of time to gather food
- 1p 34 Which of the following becomes clear about the researchers from paragraph 2?
A They focused on penguins who stayed behind with their young chicks.
B They found that the sleeping habits of penguins and humans are similar.
C They needed equipment to determine whether penguins were napping.
D They tried hard to stay hidden from the penguins when observing them.