

- 1p 9 Which of the following fits the gap, judging from the text as a whole?
- A The aching need to prove they were better than others led to family conflicts.
 - B The American passion for getting up in the world took possession of them.
 - C The desperate longing to fit in caused them to conform to social expectations.
 - D The lingering desire to go back to their American roots made them alter their course.
- 1p 10 What is the narrator's view of his mother, judging from the text?
- A He feels that her persistent pursuit of a better life caused his difficult childhood.
 - B He is quite conflicted about her uncompromising opinions on his life choices.
 - C He tells himself that she succeeded in bringing him up to be independent and optimistic.
- 2p 11 Komen de volgende beweringen overeen met de inhoud van de tekst?
Noteer 'wel' of 'niet' achter elk nummer op het antwoordblad.
- 1 De vader leidde een eenzaam bestaan totdat hij trouwde.
 - 2 De moeder volgde de adviezen van bekende mensen nauwkeurig op.
 - 3 De moeder vond dat haar man ambitieuzere doelen moest nastreven.
 - 4 Het eerste bedrijf van de ouders was een mislukking.

Tekst 5 Letters: The danger of taking liberties with ID cards

- 1p 12 What is Guy Herbert's take on ID cards, according to Letter 1?
The implementation of ID cards
- A causes citizens to question the plans of authoritarian politicians.
 - B increases the popularity of vague conspiracy theories.
 - C influences the way people think about their freedom.
 - D is hardly necessary in today's modern society.
- 1p 13 Which of the following fits the gap in Letter 2?
- A carries general public acceptance
 - B leaves room for personal interpretation
 - C minimises the need for intervention
 - D respects the privacy of individuals
- 1p 14 Which of the following fits the gap in Letter 3?
- A can be implemented
 - B is the only solution
 - C takes too much work
 - D will fail for many